Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, December 26.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph.

THAT a Prince who hath been for a long Series of Years the Father of his Country, the ſtrenuous Supporter of it's juſt Rights and Liberties, and hath uniformly adorned the high Station he fills with the Practice of every Virtue, publick and private, ſhould be openly attacked and inſulted by a deſperate Gang of Aſſaſſins, muſt raiſe in every Britiſh Breaſt the keeneſt Emotions of Abhorrence.

At the ſame Time, under pious Impreſſions of Gratitude to that kind Providence which hath interpoſed to defeat the wicked Purpoſe, and reſcue from imminent Danger a Life in which the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty, and the common Happineſs of all Ranks among us is involved, we, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, preſume to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Safety of your Perſon and Government.

We farther add our moſt fervent Prayers to Heaven, that under the ſame Almighty Protection and Guidance, having become the bleſſed Inſtrument of compoſing thoſe Troubles that now convulſe the World, you may ſee the Love of ſocial Order and Harmony revive among all Nations; and continuing to maintain, unſhaken, the Principles of our own unrivalled Conſtitution, both in Church and State, long reign in Peace and Honour over a loyal, affectionate and religious People.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop and Clergy of your Majeſty's Iſland of Mann, in Concert with your other loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of ſincere Concern and Aſtoniſhment at the Outrage lately offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in paſſing to your Houſe of Parliament.

It is with great Regret and Abhorrence we hear that there ſhould exiſt in your Majeſty's Capital even a few Individuals daring enough to avow Principles and perpetrate Acts ſubverſive of all Order and Subordination, and which menace the Diſſolution of all political Union.

With the late Occurrences in our View, we cannot help humbly remarking to your Majeſty, that in civil Society, when the eſtabliſhed Decorums of Life begin to be interrupted, when due Reſpect is withheld from Perſonages not more eminent for their Rank than for their Virtues, when the Sovereign Himſelf becomes the Object of Inſult and Menace, Events like theſe form an awful Period in the Annals of a Kingdom.

Under theſe Impreſſions we are anxious to learn that the Diſturbers of your Majeſty and the Nation be ſpeedily detected and puniſhed; and we ſhall not fail to ſolicit the Author of Peace and Lover of Concord to prevent every Return of ſuch alarming Paroxyſms of Licentiouſneſs.

We beg Leave moſt cordially to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from the ſanguinary Aſſaults of malevolent Men, and with all the Ardour becoming our Order we commit your Majeſty to God's gracious Guidance and Protection, beſeeching Him, by whom "Kings reign, and Princes decree Judgment," that in our Days "He quench not the Light of Iſrael."

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe, approach your Majeſty, impreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Reſpect, to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the outrageous Violence lately offered to your Royal Perſon.

It is with the utmoſt Concern and Aſtoniſhment we obſerve (under our happy Conſtitution of Government, and your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration of it) certain factious and malignant Spirits taking Advantage of the unhappy Preſſure of the Times to poiſon the Minds and inflame the Paſſions of the Ignorant and Unwary, in order to introduce a dreadful Scene of Anarchy and Confuſion.

Our Duty to your Majeſty and our Country loudly calls upon us to exert our utmoſt Endeavours to counteract the Poiſon diſſeminated by theſe infamous Incendiaries; and we will give a watchful Attention to the Manners and Principles of the People committed to our Care and Inſtruction, and impreſs it conſtantly upon their Minds, that the religious Duty of fearing God is not compleatly diſcharged without honouring and reverencing the King, and paying due Obedience to the eſtabliſhed Laws; and we ſhall daily offer up our humble Addreſſes to Heaven to preſerve your Majeſty's valuable Life and lengthen your Days, and that you may tranſmit to Poſterity our excellent Conſtitution entire and unimpaired, not ſubverted or weakened by the Efforts of democratic Faction, but enriched and ſtrengthened by the ſeveral Acts paſſed during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign for the further Protection and Security of that Liberty which is it's brighteſt Ornament.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham.

SIR,

WHILE we congratulate your Majeſty on your recent Deliverance from the atrocious Attempts of daring and unprincipled Men, we congratulate ourſelves and our Country that it's Conſtitution, which has been wounded by the Attack on the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, ſtill remains free.

We reflect with the ſtrongeſt Senſations of Horror on the fatal Conſequences that muſt have enſued to all Ranks of Society among us, had not a gracious Providence averted a Blow, which might have involved this Iſland in Anarchy, Confuſion and Blood.

In common with all your Majeſty's Subjects, the Clergy feel the Bleſſings of a mild and equal Government; but the Exerciſe of their Profeſſion more peculiarly enables them to appreciate the Value of the Virtues which adorn the Throne, and their great Importance to the Intereſts of Morality and Religion; and they are fully ſenſible of the beneficial Effects which a Sovereign's ſincere Belief in Chriſtianity, illuſtriouſly diſplayed in his Conduct, is calculated to produce on the Manners and the Habits of the Community at large.

Under the livelieſt Impreſſion of Gratitude for the great National Bleſſings which we enjoy, our moſt fervent Prayers are offered up to the Almighty for their Continuance, by the Prolongation of your Majeſty's Life, by it's Preſervation from ſecret Conſpiracy and open Violence, as the moſt certain Means of enſuring the preſent and perpetuating the future Happineſs of theſe Realms.

May the Crown long flouriſh on your Majeſty's Head, with all that Dignity which is eſſential to the Safety of our glorious Conſtitution! And when, at a diſtant Period, you ſhall be called upon by the King of Kings to reſign it, may it be worn unſullied by the Princes of your Royal Houſe! And may they, like you, enjoy the Fruits of their Virtues, and their Labours for the Public Good, in the genuine Affection of a free and a grateful People.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, Prebendaries and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our ſincere Profeſſions of Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Beholding, as we have ever done, with Veneration and Delight, the many public and private Virtues which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Character and render your Perſon dear to all good Men, and your Life of the higheſt Importance to the Happineſs to your People, we regard the late atrocious Outrages offered to your Majeſty, in your Way to the Houſe of Parliament, with equal Aſtoniſhment and Deteſtation; we conſider ſo daring an Inſult to your Majeſty as an open Violence done to the Nation, an Aſſault on our own Lives, Liberties and Properties, of which your Majeſty is the conſtitutional Guardian and Protector.

As Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace we have ſeen, with the deepeſt Concern, the Introduction and Progreſs of political Principles and Theories moſt adverſe to public Tranquillity and good Order; their Tendency we abhor, their Effects we deprecate; and while we pledge ourſelves, both by Doctrine and Example, in our ſeveral Stations, to inculcate upon thoſe committed to our Charge the great Chriſtian Duties of Reverence for Magiſtrates and Obedience to Authority, we declare our firm Reſolution to devote our Talents, our Lives and Properties, to the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, the Support of your Throne, and the Maintenance of our admirable Conſtitution in Church and our State. We are your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt obedient Subjects.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Major-Commandant, the Officers and Corps of the Hull Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, approach your Throne with moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring and atrocious Attack on your ſacred Perſon, aggravated as it was by having been attempted when your Majeſty was exerciſing that Branch of your Royal Prerogative, which conſtitutes the firmeſt Baſis of the Liberties of your People.

Having taken up Arms under a ſolemn Engagement to defend our invaluable Conſtitution againſt every Invaſion both of its foreign and domeſtic Enemies, permit us at this Time to renew our Proteſtations of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty, and to expreſs our Sorrow that any Part of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould have been rendered ſo blind to their own Welfare and Happineſs as to meditate their Country's Ruin by aiming a Blow at the Life of a Monarch who hath ſo long reigned in the Hearts of a grateful People.

Chriſtopher Machell, Major-Commandant.

[Preſented by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Lord Lieutenant of the Eaſt Riding of the County of York, and Town and County of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.]

To

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carliſle, in the County of Cumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of your ancient City of Carliſle, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Eſcape from the traitorous and unparalleled Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; a Circumſtance which we hold in the greateſt Abhorrence and Indignation.

Permit us to aſſure you, moſt gracious Sire, of our moſt faithful Attachment to your Royal Perſon; that we ſhall be ever attentive, with our utmoſt Vigilance and Exertions, to preſerve and defend it, and to ſupport and maintain inviolate the happy Conſtitution eſtabliſhed by the Wiſdom and Perſeverance of our Anceſtors.

We implore the Divine Providence to protect your Majeſty againſt all the Attempts of your Enemies, and to preſerve you for many Years to reign over us.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Carliſle, the 18th of December, 1795.

Morris Coulthard, Mayor

[Preſented by the Earl of Lonſdale and Sir Richard Hodgſon, Knt.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Boſton, and of the adjacent Hundreds of Kirton and Skirbeck, in the County of Lincoln.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt cordially rejoice in the happy Eſcape of your Majeſty from the violent and atrocious Attack made upon your Perſon by evil-minded Men, on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We are thankful to the Divine Providence for this further Inſtance of Protection and Favour towards your Majeſty and this Nation, and we implore the ſame Protection for your Majeſty in all future Events of your Life.

With the profoundeſt Reſpect and Gratitude we acknowledge that your Majeſty's Reign over us has been juſt, mild and paternal, and that your Majeſty has uniformly exhibited to your Subjects a religious and moral Example highly deſerving of our Imitation.

Our Minds being deeply impreſſed by theſe Sentiments, and by a ſtrong Attachment to our happy Conſtitution, we earneſtly hope that effectual Meaſures will be taken for preventing in future all Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we ſolemnly engage to defend with our Lives and Fortunes; and we will endeavour, in our reſpective Stations, to promote, among our Fellow Subjects, a Spirit of Loyalty to our Sovereign, of Obedience to the Laws, and of Moderation, Harmony and Peace amongſt each other.

[Preſented by Sir Peter Burrell, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Six Aſſiſtants, High Steward and Town-Clerk of Louth, in your County of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the ſame Town and Neighbourhood, with Sentiments of profound Veneration and Attachment, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the daring Outrages lately offered to your Royal Perſon. Senſible of the Advantages we derive from our admirable Form of Government, and your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration of it, we have, with equal Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence, viewed the licentious Inſults and atrocious Acts of Violence recently ſhewn to our amiable Sovereign, our Laws, and Conſtitution, in the Support and Preſerva tion of which we feel our Intereſt and Happineſs to be intimately concerned. By your Majeſty's vigilant Exertions, and the prudent Interpoſition of the conſtitutional Authority of Parliament, we truſt the malignant Attempts of inconſiderate and turbulent Men will be ever counteracted, and public Order and Tranquillity ſecured to us and our Poſterity. And we ſupplicate Heaven that your Majeſty may long continue on the Throne of theſe Realms the Guardian of our Laws, the Protector of our Liberties, the Friend and Father of a free and happy People.

[Preſented by Sir Joſeph Banks, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough, Town, and Pariſh of Weſtbury.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the Borough, Town, and Pariſh of Weſtbury, aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to offer our ſincere and hearty Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late Preſervation from the flagitious and horrid Inſults offered to your Royal Perſon, when paſſing to and from Parliament; and at the ſame Time beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of thoſe moſt daring Outrages, earneſtly wiſhing that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes ſo atrocious may be diſcovered and receive ſuch Puniſhment as the Laws have wiſely decreed; and alſo deſire humbly to expreſs our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and Readineſs to defend it, on all Occaſions, from Hurt or Inſult, as well as Willingneſs to come forward for the Support of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; and that it is our ardent Deſire and Prayer, that it may pleaſe Almighty God to protect your Royal Perſon in all Safety, and that your Majeſty may long reign over a People truly ſenſible of the many Privileges and Bleſſings they enjoy under their revered and much-beloved Sovereign.

[Preſented by Samuel Eſtwick, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, accompanied by Edward Wilbraham Bootle, Eſq;]

To the KING.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your faithful Subjects, the Volunteer Company of the Town of Inverneſs, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with ſincereſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the deteſtable Attempt lately made on your ſacred Perſon when proceeding to diſcharge one of the moſt important Duties of your exalted Station. While we lament that Britain contains Wretches capable of ſo execrable a Crime, we conſole ourſelves with the firm Belief that their Number is inſignificant in the extreme, when compared to the great Body of your Majeſty's loyal

loyal Subjects, who ardently wiſh for the Preſervation of your invaluable Life.

Aſſociated for the Purpoſe of maintaining good Order, and aſſiſting the Civil Magiſtrate in the Diſcharge of his Duty, we aſſure your Majeſty that we will execute the important Truſt repoſed in us by our Country at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majeſty may long live the beloved Sovereign of a loyal, free and happy People, and that your illuſtrious Deſcendants, following your benign Example, may rule over theſe Nations while the World laſts, is the earneſt Wiſh of your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Volunteers of Inverneſs.

Given under our Hands this 12th Day of December, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by the Earl of Burford and Samuel Thornton, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberbrothock.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Aberbrothock, beg Leave to approach the Throne with profound Reſpect, to expreſs our moſt ſincere Concern and Indignation at the daring Outrage and Inſult lately offered to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, in paſſing to and from your Parliament; an Attack the more flagitious, as being made on the Perſon of a Sovereign, whoſe public and private Virtues have long endeared him to the Love and Eſteem of his Subjects.

Highly ſenſible of the Wiſdom, Juſtice and Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, and of the Protection and Happineſs we enjoy under it, we beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from ſuch imminent Danger, and we earneſtly pray that your Majeſty's Life may be long preſerved as a Bleſſing to your People, and for the Security our happy Conſtitution.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Meigle.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the Preſbytery of Meigle, in the County of Angus, having viewed with Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence the late daring Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, by a licentious and deſperate Mob, do humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt cordial Congratulations on the providential Preſervation of your Majeſty in that alarming Juncture, and to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and our firm Reſolution at all Times to inculcate the ſame good Principles upon thoſe committed to our Care.

When the Spirit of Diſaffection hath manifeſted itſelf in an Attempt ſo atrocious, and when ſeditious Meetings are held to cheriſh Sentiments or broach Doctrines treaſonable in their Nature and ſubverſive of all ſocial Order, we truſt the Legiſlature will timely interpoſe its Authority, that the Conſtitution, both in Church and State, may remain unimpaired, and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, undiſturbed and glorious.

Our daily Prayers are offered up for the Welfare and Proſperity of your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Liberty of Havering Bower, in the County of Eſſex.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of your ancient and chartered Liberty of Havering Bower, anxious to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack upon your ſacred Perſon in your Paſſage to and from Parliament at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion,

Humbly preſent our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Eſcape of your Majeſty from the manifeſt Deſigns of domeſtic as well as foreign Enemies, tending to deſtroy the Happineſs which your Subjects enjoy under the Reign of the moſt virtuous of Sovereigns, and which, by the Hand of Providence, we truſt will be continued, and the mild and equitable Government of theſe Kingdoms firmly cemented, under which it is our Pride to live.

Permit us, Sire, to expreſs our Approbation of the Bills adopted by the Wiſdom of Parliament to prevent treaſonable Inſults in future to your Royal Perſon, and for the Suppreſſion of ſeditious Meetings.

That our beloved Sovereign and his illuſtrious Houſe may ever adorn the Throne of theſe Realms in perfect Happineſs and Proſperity, is the ſincere and fervent Prayer of your grateful and affectionate Subjects.

[Preſented by Bamber Gaſcoigne, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Liverpool.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, compoſing the Northern Regiment of Yorkſhire Weſt Riding Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, beg Leave to tender to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from an atrocious Attempt upon your Royal Perſon; an Attempt which ſeemed only capable of Aggravation from the flagitious Circumſtances with which it was attended.

Fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Anxiety for the Intereſts and Happineſs of your People, we never entertained a Doubt but your Majeſty would rejoice at any Opportunity of reſtoring to your Subjects the Bleſſings of Peace, whenever Peace could be reſtored on a Baſis of Honor and Security; Bleſſings which, however ineſtimable they may be deemed, are not, as we apprehend, more likely to be obtained, either by a puſillanimous and ill-timed Repreſentation of Diſtreſs, or the Efforts of Sedition and Diſſention.

Chearfully, therefore, as we ſhall lay down our Arms under your Majeſty's Commands, when thoſe deteſtable Principles are abandoned, and thoſe dreadful Dangers are averted which incited us to take them up, we beg Leave, nevertheleſs, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever continue ready to exert all the Powers and Energy we may poſſeſs in Defence of your Majeſty and our invaluable Conſtitution againſt the Attacks either of foreign Enmity or domeſtic Diſaffection.

That Providence may bleſs and ſtill protect your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family, and that you may long reign over a grateful and happy People, are the earneſt Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's dutiful and devoted Subjects.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Lister.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of Richmond in the County of York, beg Leave, with all Humility, to expreſs to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Perſon by wicked and deſigning Men, at the Time when your Majeſty was engaged in one of the moſt important Acts of the State.

The general Indignation and Abhorrence of the above Attempt, expreſſed to your Majeſty on this Occaſion by a free and diſcerning People, in which we moſt cordially unite, muſt convince you of their affectionate Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances that your Subjects feel themſelves much intereſted in your Welfare.

May the Divine Providence long preſerve your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon in perfect Health, and continue to you every domeſtic Comfort; and may your mild and parental Government ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty, Gratitude and Affection from an honeſt and manly People.

Accept, Sire, theſe heartfelt Sentiments of Abhorrence at the Treaſon, and Gratitude for your Royal Preſervation, from a Portion of your faithful Subjects, who, though in general engaged in the Purſuits of Trade and Commerce, have voluntarily aſſumed a more public Engagement, that of devoting our Lives and Services to the Safeguard of our beloved Sovereign, his Government, and our glorious Conſtitution, and to the particular Defence of the Part of the Country and Coaſt where we are Inhabitants.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Abraham Turner, of Kidderminſter in the County of Worceſter, Gentleman, to be a Maſter Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

St. James's, January 2.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Cupar, met in Preſbytery, embrace, with the moſt cordial Unanimity, the firſt Opportunity of a ſtated Meeting moſt humbly to approach your Throne with heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the daring and dangerous Inſults and Outrage of a miſguided and flagitious Mob.

With Congratulations to your Majeſty we join our moſt grateful and devout Acknowledgments for your Protection to the King of Kings, whom we fervently pray long to preſerve your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, to eſtabliſh your Throne, and to proſper your Reign.

While we congratulate your Majeſty on your Safety, and offer up our Acknowledgments to Almighty God on this memorable Occaſion, we acquieſce with the moſt entire Confidence in thoſe Meaſures adopted by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature a Means, under Providence, of the greater Security of your Majesty's Person and of our happy Constitution.

That either the one or the other should be treated with Disrespect, or endangered by any who live under their happy Auspices, we cannot help regarding as a Mark of the basest Pravity; and we impute a great Proportion of it, among other Causes, to the unguarded and violent Intemperance of Men, who, being disappointed in their own selfish and ambitious Views, scruple not, by the most desperate and dangerous Means, to hazard the Vessel of the State, because they are not permitted to guide the Helm.

In expressing our Detestation and Abhorrence of the Measures lately pursued by a violent and desperate Faction, and in deprecating the Anarchy and Ruin to which they tend, we have the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty, that we express the Sentiments and Feelings of the great Body of the People with whom we are connected. They are sensible of the Blessings resulting from our happy Constitution and your Majesty's fatherly Administration, and are warmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Family and Government.

To cherish and promote this loyal and dutiful Attachment, upon the Principles of Religion and the Love of social Order, shall, through God's Grace, be always the Study and Care of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Cupar.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

And. Ireland, Moderator.

Admiralty-Office, January 2, 1796.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Laforey, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Nepean, dated Martinico, October 22, 1795.

ON the 20th Instant the Bellona arrived, having joined Vice-Admiral Thompson on the 7th of September, in the Latitude 43 Deg. 20 Min. N. and Longitude 38 Deg. 9 Min. W.

In my last I informed you, Sir, with the Capture of the Superbe French Frigate, of 22 Guns, off Desirada by the Vanguard; since which I have received an Account from Captain Warre, of His Majesty's Ship Mermaid, dated the 12th Instant, that, cruizing to Windward of Grenada, he discovered, on the 10th, off La Baye, a Ship and a Brig at Anchor, which, upon seeing him, got under Weigh and made Sail from him; but the Brig soon bore up, and pushed into a small Bay called Requain, where the Mermaid followed her, and run aground close to her: The French, however, got on Shore to the Number of 70 Troops, and 50 that were her Crew, and upwards of 50, had been landed by the Ship while at Anchor. Captain Warre got Possession of the Brig, which is named the Brutus, of 10 Guns: The next Day he chased the Ship the whole Day, but she escaped in the Night. And in a subsequent Letter, dated the 15th, he informed me that he discovered her again on the 14th to Leeward of him, when he chased and captured her, after an Action of Half an Hour, with the Loss of One Man killed and Three wounded in the Mermaid, and Twenty killed, and several wounded of the Enemy: That both these Vessels were Conventional Corvettes. The Ship named the Republican, mounting 18 Guns, and had on Board 259 or 260 Men at the Commencement of the Action, with a French General and his Staff, destined to command at Grenada. In a Letter wrote the following Day he acquainted me, that upon his Return to Grenada, with his Prize, he had the Mortification to find that the important Post of Gouyave, or Charlotte Town, had been taken by the Enemy the Night before, Horse-Guards, January 2, 1796.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Leigh to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Martinico, October 31, 1795.

IT is with real Concern I inform you of the Loss of the important Post of Guave, in the Island of Grenada; for the Particulars of which I beg Leave to refer you to Brigadier-General Nicolls's Letter of the 18th Instant, and to the several Reports made to him upon that Event, Copies of which I have the Honour to inclose.

Extract of a Letter from Brigadier-General Oliver Nicolls to his Excellency Major-General Leigh, dated Grenada, October 18, 1795.

IT is with extreme Concern I report to your Excellency the Loss of the Post of Gouyave. The Enemy having attacked and carried by Assault, the Night of the 15th Instant, the strong Hill which commands the Harbour and Town, Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw did not think his Force strong enough to recover it immediately, and the lower Situation not being tenable, he retired to this Town, unmolested by the Enemy, a March of Twelve Miles, and arrived here the next Morning about Nine o'Clock. His Return, which is inclosed, will shew the Loss of the 68th Regiment. The 25th Regiment had Fifty-five Sick there, with Three Subalterns. One Subaltern, Lieutenant Ashe, and Sixteen of whom were able to march with Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw's Detachment, are here; the rest have fallen into the Hands of the Enemy.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw, of the 68th Regiment, to Brigadier-General Nicolls, dated St. George's, October 17, 1795.

SIR,

IN Obedience to your Desire I should have earlier given you an Account of the Particulars which obliged me to evacuate the Post of Gouyave, but waited to ascertain our Loss, which I find to be Two Serjeants and Thirty-four Rank and File missing, with One Lieutenant, (Carr) supposed to be mortally wounded.

The Insurgents attacked a strong Picquet, consisting of a Captain, Two Subalterns, Four Serjeants jeants and Sixty Rank and File, poſted on the Hill commanding the Town of Gouyave; One Subaltern of which, with Twenty Men, were detached along the Ridge running Weſt about Two Hundred Yards from Captain Hamilton's Poſt, in order to prevent their Approach from coming up a Valley in their Front, which had the deſired Effect, as Enſign Connor, of the 68th Regiment, a very ſteady and brave Officer, checked a Column, intended againſt him, by the Vigilance and Fire of his Advanced Sentries. The Column then (as he ſuppoſes) directed their Route towards the Captain's Poſt, as a hot Firing ſoon after commenced there, during a very heavy Shower of Rain. This Circumſtance induced Enſign Connor to march to the Support of that Poſt; but on his Arrival fell in with Captain Hamilton, who told him he had been ſurrounded with a very ſuperior Body of the Enemy, which had penetrated and driven his Party from the Works; and that Lieutenant Carr, with ſeveral of his Men, were badly wounded; all which Circumſtances were confirmed to me by the Arrival of Captain Hamilton at Gouyave Houſe, who made me a ſimilar Report. During this Tranſaction a Report prevailed that the Inſurgents were advancing from our Rear, and the Part of the Works below; and I was confirmed in it by Firing being heard from the latter mentioned Place. This prevented me from calling up Colonel Webſter's Black Corps, who had the Deſence of the Town and the Protection of the Hoſpital; as alſo Captain Angus's Black Corps, who had been poſted to defend the Sugar-Works, (and, as I had been informed, had perceived an Enemy approaching) to make an Attempt to recover the Hill again. An Attempt, however, was made by all the Men I could muſter of the 68th Regiment; but they were not able to advance further than the Poſt already mentioned, on the Left of the Ridge, which was gained with great Difficulty, from the very ſteep and ſlippery State, occaſioned by the conſtant Rains; and finding the Enemy ſo ſuperior in Numbers, and in Poſſeſſion of a Field Piece, from which they fired Grape, as to make it too hazardous, and no Probability of Succeſs.

It was then the general Senſe of the Officers under my Command, whoſe Opinios I ſeverally took, to retreat to Sauteur, but that afterwards being found impracticable it was reſolved to march to St. George's.

This, Sir, is a Detail of Facts, as nearly as I can ſtate to you, of this unfortunate Buſineſs, but which, however to be lamented, will not, I truſt, appear to you either to have proceeded from any Want of Vigilance or Neglect of Duty on my Side.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Signed, JOHN B. SCHAW,
Major of the 68th Regiment, and Lieut. Col.

P. S. I have the Honour herewith to ſend you a State of the 68th Regiment.

Return of the 68th Regiment of Foot, of Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers, and Rank and File, on the 16th of October, 1795.

Preſent.—10 Officers, 17 Serjeants, 15 Drummers, 107 Rank and File.
Miſſing.—2 Serjeants, 34 Rank and File.
Sick at Gouayrve.—29 Rank and File.
Total.—10 Officers, 19 Serjeants, 15 Drummers, 170 Rank and File.

(Signed) John B. Schaw, Major,
68th Regiment.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Hamilton, of th, 68th Regiment, to Brigadier-General Nicolls dated St. George's, October 17, 1795.

I Am this Moment honored with your Letter of this Date, in Anſwer to which I beg Leave to ſtate, that I joined the Guard on Gouyave-Hill after Dark on the Night of the 15th Inſtant, and, on Enquiry, found it conſiſted of One Serjeant, Two Corporals, and Thirty-eight Men, of which Eleven were Blacks. I then detached One Corporal and Three Britiſh Soldiers to a Path pointed out by Captain Pinuber, to Colonel Schaw, with Orders, that ſhould the Enemy approach that Way to give them their Fire, and then retire to the Huts, and alarm the Men there, and immediately to join Colonel Schaw at the Houſe, it being impoſſible for them to rejoin me, from the Nature of the Ground. This left me with One Serjeant, One Corporal, and Thirty-five Men, including the Blacks. I then fell them in round the Breaſt-Work, in order that each Man ſhould know his Poſt in caſe of an Alarm; on doing which I found that I was obliged to leave a Space of Two Yards and better between each Man, to enable me to occupy the Whole of the Ground within the Breaſt-Work; and, as the Night was extremely dark, I thought it neceſſary to put Thirteen Sentries. At a little after Eleven o'Clock, Lieutenant Carr (who was my Subaltern) viſited the Sentries, and, on his Return, informed me he had found them perfectly alert: In about Five Minutes after which we heard One of them fire, on which we immediately turned out, and had Time to fire from Four to Five Rounds per Man, previous to the Enemy's getting up to the Breaſt-Work, after which we diſputed it with our Bayonets, until overpowered by Numbers. Some Confuſion took Place among the Gunners, which prevented them from firing the Field Piece (the only Gun we had) immediately on the Attack; and, on the Enemy's getting near the Breaſt-Work, it was impoſſible to fire it without endangering our own Men; and, indeed, it would have been of little Avail, as we were attacked on all Sides. With reſpect to our Loſs, or that of the Enemy, I cannot take upon me to ſay what it may have been, as the Night was ſo dark as to prevent me from ſeeing; neither can I attempt to ſay what was their Strength. Before Lieutenant Carr and I quitted the Poſt, there appeared to be at leaſt One Hundred of the Enemy within the Breaſt-Work, and from the Noiſe without they ſeemed to be advancing in great Force. I am inclined to think their Loſs muſt have been conſiderable, as our Fire appeared to be well directed, and our Men diſputed the Breaſt-Work bravely with their Bayonets, beſides which they, the Enemy, fired on each other for ſome Time after we had been obliged to quit the Poſt. Lieutenant Carr remained with me within the Works (though wounded) until we found that our Men were all driven out, after which we retired. The Man who bayonetted him attacked me, when I fortunately ſhot him, by which I eſcaped.

I have the Honor, &c.
